A BILL

To grant the Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the First Special Service Force, in recognition of its superior service during World War II.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.
- 4 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The First Special Service Force (the 2 “Force”), a military unit composed of volunteers 3 from the United States and Canada, was activated 4 in July 1942 at Fort Harrison near Helena, Mon-
5 tana.

6 (2) The Force was initially intended to target
7 military and industrial installations that were sup-
8 porting the German war effort, including important 9 hydroelectric plants, which would severely limit the 10 production of strategic materials used by the Axis
11 powers.

12 (3) From July 1942 through June 1943, volun-
13 teers of the Force trained in hazardous, arctic condi-
14 tions in the mountains of western Montana, and in 15 the waterways of Camp Bradford, Virginia.

16 (4) The combat echelon of the Force totaled 17 1,800 soldiers, half from the United States and half 18 from Canada.

19 (5) The Force also contained a service bat-20 talion, composed of 800 members from the United 21 States, that provided important support for the com-
22 bat troops.

23 (6) A special bond developed between the Cana-
24 dian and United States soldiers, who were not seg-

1 regated by country, although the commander of the 2 Force was a United States colonel.

3 (7) The Force was the only unit formed during 4 World War II that consisted of troops from Canada
5 and the United States.

6 (8) In October 1943, the Force went to Italy,
7 where it fought in battles south of Cassino, including 8 Monte La Difensa and Monte Majo, two mountain
9 peaks that were a critical anchor of the German de-10 fense line.

11 (9) During the night of December 3, 1943, the 12 Force ascended to the top of the precipitous face of 13 Monte La Difensa, where the Force suffered heavy 14 casualties and overcame fierce resistance to overtake 15 the German line.

16 (10) After the battle for La Difensa, the Force 17 continued to fight tough battles at high altitudes, in 18 rugged terrain, and in severe weather.

19 (11) After battles on the strongly defended
20 Italian peaks of Sammucro, Vischiataro, and 21 Remetanea, the size of the Force had been reduced
22 from 1,800 soldiers to fewer than 500.

23 (12) For 4 months in 1944, the Force engaged
24 in raids and aggressive patrols at the Anzio Beach-25 head.

(13) On June 4, 1944, members of the Force
were among the first Allied troops to liberate Rome.

(14) After liberating Rome, the Force moved to southern Italy and prepared to assist in the liberation of France.

(15) During the early morning of August 15, 1944, members of the Force made silent landings on Les Iles D'Hyeres, small islands in the Mediterranean Sea along the southern coast of France.

10 (16) The Force faced a sustained and withering
11 assault from the German garrisons as the Force pro-
12 gressed from the islands to the Franco-Italian bor-13 der.

(19) The United States is forever indebted to the acts of bravery and selflessness of the troops of

1 the Force, who risked their lives for the cause of 2 freedom.

3 (20) The efforts of the Force along the seas
4 and skies of Europe were critical in repelling the ad-
5 vance of Nazi Germany and liberating numerous 6 communities in France and Italy.

7 (21) The bond between the members of the 8 Force from the United States and those from Can-9 ada has endured over the decades, as the members 10 meet every year for a reunion, alternating between 11 the United States and Canada.

12 (22) The traditions and honors exhibited by the 13 Force are carried on by 2 outstanding active units 14 of 2 great democracies, the Special Forces of the 15 United States and the Canadian Special Operations
16 Regiment.
